most studies link chocolate lovers with higher libidos because of the effect chocolate has on brain alcohol consumption is one of a cluster of adolescent risk behaviours that tend to occur together the third and last pre-approval round of testing of a drug is conducted on large populations of afflicted patients